Dear Mr. Schwartz:

Thank you very much for your letter of 6 May inviting me to contribute an item for the auction that you have planned at the Petach Tikvah Congregation Carnival in June.

I sincerely regret that I have no suitable item that I might give to your congregation for sale at the auction. However, your courtesy in writing to me about this is indeed appreciated.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The Petach Tikvah Congregation, one of the oldest synagogues in Northwest Baltimore, is having a Carnival from June 27 through June 30.

This year we have a rather novel auction planned. A number of well known international, national, and state personalities are contributing various items to be sold.

Our Committee felt that you might like to have a part in this activity. Any item identified with your name would, undoubtedly, assist greatly in the success of the auction.

Trusting that your reply will be in the affirmative, I am,,

Very truly yours,
